

Hannah who had disappeared during the attack of the Pirate, mentioned in our last summary, we are happy to learn have reached Macao, having saved themselves in the ships boat. When the Pirate left them, the chief mate attempted to swim to the Hannah which was still close at hand, but must have sunk. As nothing has been heard of the other two there seems no reason to doubt that they shared the same melancholy fate.

A fearful accident occurred at Indore on the 14th. Several thousands of Bramins had been assembled at the palace to receive gifts at the festival of Gunputte. They were simultaneously descending a staircase in crowds, when the structure gave way, and in the rush and crush which ensued one hundred and ninety four lives were lost.

Atrocious Conduct.

The Piscatquis Farmer states that a band of men disguised as Indians, a few days since, forced the doors of a 'Miller' meeting in Atkinson and seized and carried off several persons not supposed to belong to the town and threatened to tar and feather the adventists if they held any more meetings.

We are far enough from approving the course of the adventists, but immensely farther from giving countenance to such outrages as these.— If there is no legal mode of curing the evils of 'Millerism' let it go on and on forever before the community resort to the infamous and destructive system of Lynch law, for that is worse than a thousand Millerism.

By a new mail arrangement that is to go into operation in a short time, the mail will leave Boston in the morning, arrive in New York in season for the five o'clock train to Philadelphia—reach Philadelphia at eleven o'clock, P. M.—and reach Washington the next morning.—From Boston to Washington, 432 miles, in twenty four hours nearly nineteen miles an hour.

It is stated in a letter from Gov. Roberts of Siberia, that the brig 'Atlanta' left the coast with a cargo of upwards of 400 slaves for the Havannah, and in sight of a British cruiser—Being an old trader on the coast and known by most of the naval officers on this station, it was not suspected by the officers of the men-of-war in sight; consequently no notice was taken of her, nor did they discover the dilution until the vessel was far, far away, and beyond their reach.

The Bath Enquirer a local paper complains of the new State valuation and intimates that the agricultural interest was a little too strongly represented on the committee. The valuation has cost enough to be a good one, but it is likely to be less acceptable than that of 1841.

Gen. Almonte has received advices from his Government since the overthrow of his particular friend Santa Anna. The Ambassador has been recognized by the new Government, but will nevertheless, return home on the first of April.

It is pretty well understood that Mr. Rantoul has received the appointment of U. S. Attorney for Massachusetts district in place of Franklin Dexter, Esq.

A New York paper states fifty gaming houses are in action in New York, the most of them in Park row, Barclay street and Canal street; and that more than half the population are gamblers by profession, are present in the city and passing for respectable.

The Whig ladies of Norwich just purchased two handsome silks with a beautiful pattern, with a simple inscription, which are to be presented to Mr. Clay, as a slight evidence of the admiration entertained for him and his friends.

The new Print Works near Dedham village, Mass., too large for the day and were entirely destroyed by fire, everything lost. The loss insured for about $10,000; $1800 was paid by the Mutual, and the remainder is probably twice the amount of the loss.

The Sheriff of Schoharie co Sheriff Bouck, who went to see the Duke of Blenheim, were taken from the night, by a party of Indians on a mountain, searched, picked up, and returned to the town in ruins and many frights.

Mrs Myra Willis, wife of Esq. Editor of the New York Tribune, that city on the 26th inst. of typhoid fever was an accomplished lady, English very much beloved by a large circle of friends.

Two more fights have occurred more between the firemen; one on Monday afternoon a man had his collar bone broken, the latter the Vigilant Hose carried into the Patuxent river, at Canton.

A bill was reported in the National Assembly for the long contested project of the Hudson River at the mouth of the river. It was made the order of the day.

The Baltimore Methodist Church, which has been adjourned since the 10th of June, will next meeting in Baltimore on Friday, Sept. 4, will be open.

An intelligent woman in Maryland lay many more eggs in a season than when she had a little pepper upon her corn having a little pepper upon her than when fed in any other manner.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania appropriated $355,000 to pay the interest on the State debt.

William Smith, a Mormon of the late Prophet, has been hanged in Philadelphia for a libel on B. W. Smith, a Mormon.

A man has been arrested for outraging his own child, a little of age. He is now in prison for the offense.

Ex-Governor James McMillan has been appointed Collector of Customs at New York.